

Now days saving is the trend of every business and school is based on profit on loss for continuity and enhancing system at school, insuring heated water at school continuously available constantly is necessary factor to our students for washing cleaning and showering is intensively required. School can save up to 85% electricity using energy saving heating solar system improving the yearly budget program.